Five Local Leaders to be Honored with Women Excel Bloomington Awards

Bloomington, Ind. – April 26, 2023 – The Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce has announced the five Women Excel Bloomington (WEB) 2023 award winners. These local women were chosen based on their outstanding leadership, business acumen, entrepreneurship, and community involvement. The 13th Annual WEB Awards cocktail reception and celebration will be held on Thursday, June 1, from 5:30 – 8:00 pm at Indiana University’s Henke Hall of Champions inside the Indiana Memorial Stadium.

Those to be honored at the 2023 Women Excel Bloomington award winners are:

- Kelly Clark – Founder/Owner, Patient Physical Therapy
- Hope Kaser – Assistant Director, IU Athletic Dining
- Lauren McCalister – Owner, 3 Flock Farms
- Gillian Thiebe – Chief Operating Officer, JB International
- Nicole White – Owner, Fit812

“Our community is so fortunate to benefit from the leadership and involvement of these five award-winning women,” said Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce President & CEO Eric Spoonmore. “It is an honor to recognize the dedication and hard work of local women who have gone above and beyond to lead and serve in the greater Bloomington community.”

This event is possible because of support from sponsors, including: Cassady Electric, Cook Group, Old National Bank, Ruoff Mortgage, Indiana University, WBWB/WHCC, First Financial Bank, Develofy Consulting, ForthPhaze Technology, Inc., Nature’s Way, CFC Properties, Choice Realty, German American Bank, ISU/The May Agency, Ivy Tech Community College-Bloomington, Smithville, The Herald-Times, and The Monroe County YMCA.
