

Mapping Your Business Future

FACT SHEET

South Central Indiana SBDC

The Small Business Development (SBDC) is dedicated to helping small businesses throughout South Central Indiana achieve their goals of growth, expansion, innovation, increased productivity and success.

The SBDC offers the following services:

Consulting

- Offered to existing business owners, as well as to those just getting started.
- Provided free-of-charge and in person.
- Needs assessment conducted for all clients, along with a plan for addressing your specific issues.

Seminars, Conferences & Workshops

- Workshops and conferences geared to the specific needs of small business owners.
- Low-cost programs covering core business topics as well as current trends.
- Seminars tailored to meet the diverse needs of business owners in both metropolitan and non-urban areas.