

MCCSC Youth Art Month Exhibition

Celebrate Young Artists!

March is Youth Art Month, a national celebration intended to recognize the impact of art education and visual arts experiences in developing life skills such as problem solving, creativity, observation, and communication. You can see exceptional artwork created by MCCSC students in Middle School and High School, at the FAR Center for Contemporary Arts, March 25 - 29.

Participating Schools:

Bloomington High School South
Bloomington High School North
Academy of Science and Entrepreneurship
Batchelor Middle School
Jackson Creek Middle School
Tri-North Middle School

EXHIBITION OPENING

Friday, March 28th 5pm-8pm

ON VIEW

March 25 - 29

Tuesday - Friday: 11am - 5pm

Saturday: 11am - 3pm

LOCATION

505 Theater @ FAR

505 W 4th St, Bloomington IN

Featured Artwork by Lizy Sereda from BHSN