FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce Named Semi-Finalist for ICEA 2024 Chamber of the Year and Innovation Excellence Awards

Bloomington, Ind. – May 31, 2024 – The Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce its selection as a semi-finalist for the Indiana Chamber Executive Association (ICEA) 2024 Chamber of the Year Award. This prestigious recognition places the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce among the top eight chambers in Indiana.

In addition to this honor, the Chamber is also a semi-finalist for five Innovation Excellence Awards. These awards celebrate innovative projects and initiatives that have made a significant impact over the past year. The nominated projects include:

- The Success School's Career Cruise
- Ambassador Program
- Connect Bloomington
- New Member Onboarding & Retention Pipelines
- Chamber Insider Updates

"The recognition as a semi-finalist for both the Chamber of the Year and multiple Innovation Excellence Awards is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our staff, volunteers, and members," said Eric Spoonmore, President & CEO of the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce. "These nominations highlight our commitment to excellence and our innovative approach to supporting and enhancing our local business community. We are honored to be recognized among the best chambers in Indiana."

The Outstanding Chamber of the Year Award acknowledges organizational excellence and offers a unique opportunity for chambers to benchmark their strengths against peers. The Innovation Excellence Awards celebrate creative and impactful new projects that have been implemented over the past year.

The winners will be announced at the ICEA Annual Conference, scheduled for June 13th. The Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce looks forward to the opportunity to showcase its achievements and continue its mission of advocating for business, promoting community, and providing valuable resources to its members.
