

The Greater Bloomington
Chamber of Commerce

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce's Foundation, The Success School, Seeks Nominations for the 2024 Educator of the Year Awards

Bloomington, Indiana – May 31, 2024 - The Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce's Foundation, The Success School, seeks nominations for the Educator of the Year Awards to be held this year, at the Chamber's 109th Annual Meeting & Community Awards on September 26th. Teachers, program directors, counselors, administrators, and instructional staff, from either Monroe County Community School Corporation or Richland Bean-Blossom Community School Corporation are eligible for this recognition.

"The Success School is deeply committed to celebrating the outstanding educators who shape the future of our community," said Katie Sensabaugh, Director of The Chamber's Foundation & Internal Operations. "These educators not only excel in their professional roles but also significantly contribute to the well-being and development of our students. We are proud to honor their dedication and impact through these awards."

Outstanding Educator Awards will recognize outstanding service and dedication to the field of education, fellow educators, and Monroe County youth.

Those wishing to nominate a deserving educator should contact the Chamber's Success School at (812) 336-6381 or download a nomination application from the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce's website at www.ChamberBloomington.org. Nominations are due by August 5th, 2024, to be eligible for consideration.

The Educator of the Year Awards program was established in 2001 to bring members of the business and education communities together while recognizing and celebrating outstanding contributions in the field of K-12 education. The highly coveted awards are given to individuals who have been nominated by school staff, parents, students, and the business community at the Educator of the Year Awards. This year, the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce will be adding the Educator of the Year award program to the 109th Annual Meeting & Community Awards on September 26th.

About the Chamber's Success School:

As part of the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce's Foundation, the Success School is a unique program designed to promote career awareness and help students develop the skills necessary to succeed in employment or in continuing education. The mission is to facilitate partnerships and programs between the education and business communities that increase student engagement and, therefore, student achievement by providing real-world connections linked with information about future careers.

About the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce:

The Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce is a nonprofit membership organization serving as our community's leading advocate for business. We offer unique leadership opportunities, meaningful volunteer activities, and exclusive business-building programs focused on critical economic, civic, and social priorities. Chamber members support each other and community initiatives, sharing information and resources to help create economic opportunity and community well-being. At the Greater Bloomington Chamber of Commerce, we believe that better business leads to a better community.

###

Contact:

Katie Sensabaugh, Director of The Chamber's Foundation &
Internal Operations
(812) 336-6381
ksensabaugh@chamberbloomington.org
www.ChamberBloomington.org

Kaytee Lorentzen, Director of Communications &
Events
(812) 336-6381
klorentzen@chamberbloomington.org
www.ChamberBloomington.org